

KIA Magic - Head Coach Vacancy

Do you have the heart, power and magic?

Do you want to lead a world class programme capable of preparing the most successful ANZ Championship team to achieve even further success in the world's leading netball competition? Then we need you to apply for this rare opportunity to be head coach of one of New Zealand's leading sports teams.

The successful applicant will be an experienced elite level coach, tactically astute, an expert at the technical aspects of the game and with an extensive knowledge of netball and sport in general. The applicant will also be experienced at working closely with others to plan, develop and implement a programme that will prepare elite players for international competition.

An ability to take an idea or concept and devise challenging and effective training sessions is essential, as is a sound knowledge of sport science and the ability to practically integrate the various disciplines into the programme. The candidate will be up to date with coaching developments, sports science research, teaching skills and techniques in netball and sport generally and have the ability to identify and plan a professional development training programme.

Other competencies include a high level of communication and leadership skills, an ability to give and receive constructive feedback and be decisive and objective under pressure. Applicants will preferably have coached at a recognised elite netball level.

If you have what it takes, please request the KIA Magic Head Coach Position Description and then forward your letter of application and covering curriculum vitae to: KIA Magic Head Coach Position c/o High Performance Manager, PO Box 46, Hamilton, New Zealand or email: delwyn.spedding@netballwbop.co.nz

All applications will be treated in the strictest confidence.

Closing date for applications is 4.00pm, Friday 14 June 2013
